Agenda Point 3:
To receive and adopt the Annual Report for the year 2016-17;
President informed that Annual Report for the year 2016-17 is published on the website and asked if there are any queries/comments. T.V. Gopal appreciated the CSpathshala initiative and suggested that ACM should collaborate with e-pathshala which is similar initiative. After the discussions, Annual Report for the year 2016-17 was adopted.
Proposed by: Chandrashekhar Sahasrabudhe
Seconded by: Abhijat Vichare:

Agenda point 4:
To appoint the auditors for the year 2017-18;
President informed that currently M/S Joshi Apte and Company are our auditors and they have offered their services for the current year also. It was decided to appoint M/S Joshi Apte and Company as auditors for the year 2017-18.
Proposed by: Nirjhar Bar
Seconded by: Rashmi Mohan

Agenda point 5:
Any other matter with the permission of the Chair.
Mr. Nirjhar Bar enquired about status of professional chapters – why the number of chapters is declined from 15 to 13 and which are these two chapters. Chandrashekhar Sahasrabudhe explained that ACM has some reporting norms for the chapters and it is monitored by HQ. Prof. T.V. Gopal enquired about plans of broadcasting the Turing 50 event. President informed that live streaming is already planned and details are announced to all members. Prof. Gopal suggested that ACM India should publish links of the recording with some searchable key-words. This will be easier for people to view the talks as per their interests. President mentioned that this can be considered.

Since there were no more questions, meeting was closed with thanks to the Chair.
